Quaint and quintessential 1930's character home

They do not make them like this anymore. Boasting authentic character from the moment you arrive, this elevated circa 1930s Weatherboard and Tile character home boasts traditional soaring ceilings, ornate cornices and light mouldings, stunning hardwood Jarrah floorboards, and spacious rooms are just the beginning.

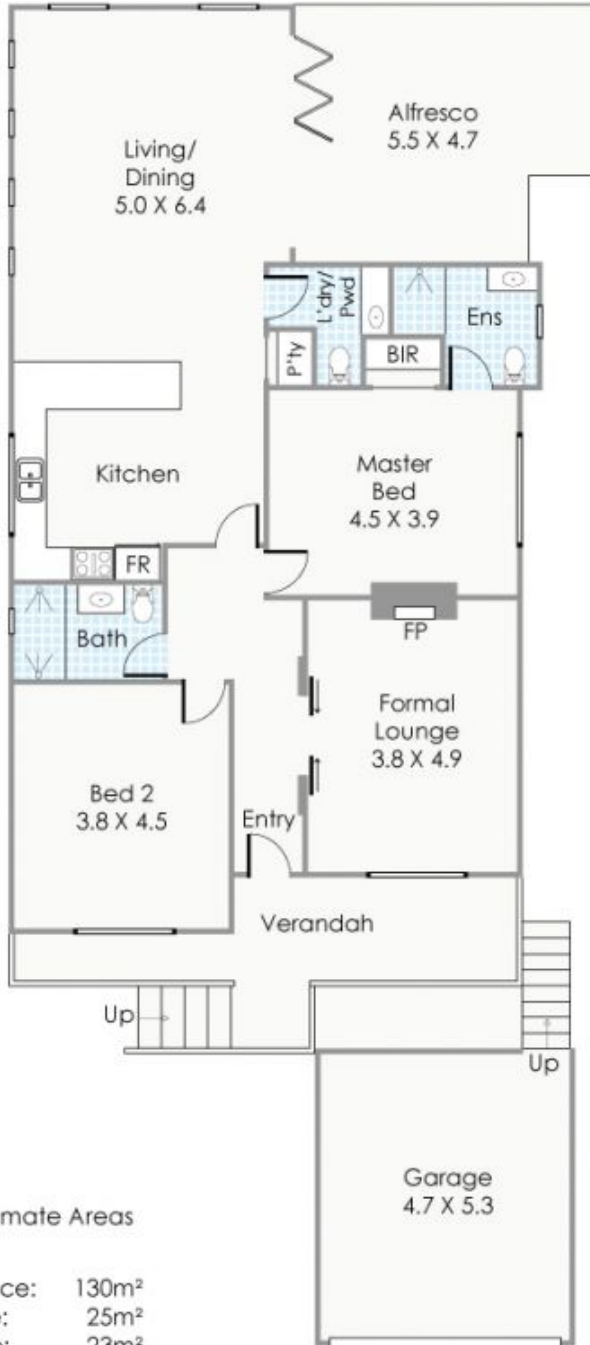

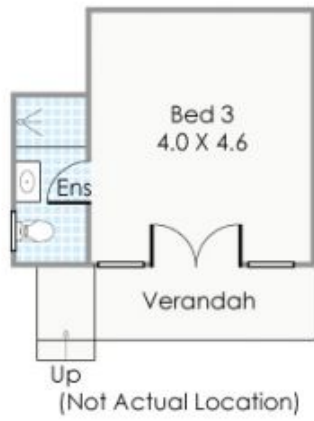

The location does not get much better either, opposite picturesque Halliday Park or a short walk to the Bayswater Train station which will have you in the city in minutes. The emerging cafe and entertainment strip is a breath of fresh air and let's not forget the allure of the Maylands Cafe culture only minutes away. If Golfing is your guilty pleasure,
