Tucked away in a whisper-quiet, tree-lined cul-de-sac between Peet Park & Belmont Forum is 14 Nanven Place, an extraordinary property that just keeps on giving. Beyond the charming red brick colonial façade this property boasts a sprawling 370sqm of covered space set over a massive 1041sqm DUPLEX BLOCK with plenty of side access, a rarity in today's market. Absolutely perfect for the boutique developer looking to retain an exceptional home and build at the rear, or for the extended family requiring plenty of space to spread themselves over, or the astute investor looking for a huge rental return while land banking a blue-ribbon development site for future subdivision.

The existing backyard has been curated into areas with cobblestone paths meandering through expansive native
