Occasionally a home comes to the market that looks and feels like it could be 'the one', but inevitably you were a bit slow off the mark and before you got to have a look inside it was gone! Well this is that home!

Welcome home to 46a Central Avenue, Ascot where any budget was dispensed with during the design and build of this home. It is nothing short of remarkable, this home is a private retreat designed to be your very own year round staycation. A TRUE family sized 4 bedroom x 2 bathroom + study colonial reproduction built by renowned builder, Red Ink Homes. Over 250sqm of living space where yesteryear's most adorning features such as hardwood jarrah flooring fuse effortlessly into today's modern white plantation shutters. When is the last time you saw a 771sqm rear green title block only a moments away from the tranquil Swan River?
